The Mangrove Evolution

Founded in 1994, Mangrove has evolved from a handful of highly-skilled Human Resource and Payroll consultants to an employer services company. Its software and solutions continue to support the industry shift of HR department functions from administrative to more strategic roles that today's organizations now demand. Privately-held and financially stable, the company has sustained consistent growth over the past decades and manages its national client base from the corporate headquarters in Tampa, Florida as well as service centers in Las Vegas and Salt Lake City.
